SCOTT'S

Patent Improved and Ventilated

Refrigerators.
This superior article is so constructed that the ice-water runs slowly between each metallic shelf, which is double, thereby causing its refrigerating influence to be the same throughout the whole apparatus. The water, as it melts from the ice, is confined within said shelves, from the effect of all but air, keeping them cool, fresh, and giving out a constant supply of the benefit of the ice and ice water. A ventilation, different from those used in any other Refrigerator, and far better, has been applied to them. Owing to their peculiar construction, they will not rust or injure the things placed in them as the Old Style Boxes have done. All will be convinced of this upon an examination of them. The above out-represents the exterior and interior. They are made of various sizes, are very moderate, and as cheap as the old fashioned articles. They are kept cleaner than any Refrigerator heretofore in use, and are warranted to keep cool and preserve ALL articles for culinary purposes, such as Meats, Milk, Butter, &c.
Another great advantage in Scott's Patent Refrigerators, is that they have a Water Jar placed in them, from which water can be drawn off, and used for drinking. This is a great improvement. This is indeed economy. It opens on the front and top, makes a very easy and convenient, and is in and out in a moment. These Refrigerators are manufactured by J. McMillan & Son, at Louisville, and the certificates of a large number of the most respectable citizens of Louisville, who are using them, testifying to their superior adaptation to all others to the objects for which they are designed, are in the possession of the subscriber.
Refer to Gov. Letcher, Dr. Physician and John Watson.

FRANKFORT.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1849.

JOHN W. FINNELL, Editor.

A correspondent of the Kentucky Tribune, calls the attention of the people to the importance of building a railroad from Danville to Lexington. A route may be found, it is said, presenting very few obstructions—and the opinion is expressed, that the road if constructed, will pay a handsome dividend. The object is to unite at Lexington with the road to Louisville. The proposed road would traverse a country inferior in fertility and wealth, to none in the state. The people interested in the work, should at once take the matter in hand—they have the capital to spare—and we know of no better investment for it.

"Ashland" says that a leading democrat and somewhat celebrated political intriguer is now in Washington city, fresh from Georgia, and charged with the important duty of making Mr. Cobb, of that state, speaker of the next house of representatives in congress. It is hoped that the democratic free-soil vote may be secured to Mr. Cobb, because of his refusal to sign the Calhoun Manifesto.

The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance, met in Louisville last week. The attendance was highly respectable and we are informed that much important and interesting business was transacted. The Chronicle, contains the following list of officers, elected on Friday last:

Charles Ezington, of Winchester, G. W. P.; A. S. Walker, of Louisville, G. W. A.; A. Monroe, of Frankfort, G. S.; Wm. Kendrick, of Louisville, Treasurer; D. L. Adair, of Haysville, Grand Conductor; S. P. Keeler, of Louisville, G. Sentinel; James Young, of Louisville, G. Chaplain. The salary of the Grand Scribe was fixed at $300 per annum, by a vote of about 50 to 30.

THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONS.—Mr. CARD, the agent for the publishers of the above work is now in our city.

The present edition is prepared by S. R. Bicklow, Esq., is very beautifully printed, and we are assured by the agent, contains literal copies of the Constitutions of the several States of this Union. The importance of this work to the Delegates of the Convention, can hardly be estimated by dollars and cents, and we respectfully suggest to that honorable body, the propriety of securing, if practicable, a number of copies for the use of the Convention. Our State Library does not contain a copy of the Constitutions of the several States. The edition now before us is just printed, and is handsomely embellished. A specimen copy may be seen at this office.

We regret to learn from the Georgetown Herald of Friday last, that our friend FRENCH, the editor of that paper is confined to his room by severe indisposition. He has our best wishes for his speedy restoration to his accustomed good health.

HOGS AND PORK PACKING.—The Louisville Courier of Saturday says: "We hear, as yet, of no contracts for hogs this season. There will be a considerable accession of packers here, and we anticipate that Louisville will do a more extensive business in the hog killing line this winter, than ever before." Under the commercial head, the editor of the same paper says: "Bayers of hogs are by no means anxious to enter the market, and in fact we hear of no inquiry. The general dullness that has pervaded the provision markets for many months has checked all thoughts of speculation. We understand that the farmers and drovers in various sections of the state anticipate prices to open at $3 net. This we think is much higher than buyers will contract for, and in the absence of transactions or offers, we of course cannot state the rates that are likely to be obtained. We are informed that the number of hogs in the state is ample, with no fears of light supplies."

MAJ. GAINES' ACCEPTANCE OF THE GOVERNORSHIP OF OREGON.—"Ashland," the Washington correspondent of the Louisville Courier, says, the acceptance by Major Gaines of the governorship of Oregon has imparted good deal of satisfaction to our friends at head quarters. He is admirably adapted for the place, and his administration will, beyond a peradventure, reflect credit upon himself, and be productive of the greatest benefit to the territory and its citizens. It is expected that he will leave early in November by a government vessel that will sail from New York.

SHOOTING DEATH.—The Rockville, Ind., Whig, of the 5th inst., states that on Saturday night previous, the house of Mr. Browner, a resident of Sugar Creek in Park county, was consumed by fire, and with it the body of Mrs. Browner, his wife. It is stated that not a bone orinder of her remains was left.

At the August election in Indiana, the vote stood 1,530 for calling a Convention to amend the Constitution, to 57,418 against it. The total vote of the State was 59,448.

LIBERATION OF JOHN MITCHELL.—An Irish paper says that the British Government have given Mr. Mitchell (the Irish political convict) leave to go wherever he may choose, provided it be not in British territory. It is presumed that he will make his residence in some part of Germany.

HOX, MR. KING AND GEN. RILEY.—The New York Express of Saturday evening says: "Private advices received from San Francisco, leave but little hope of the recovery of Thomas Butler King, the M. C. from Georgia. His vote at the organization of the House would be a most important one, but there is but little probability that he will be present. The same letter states Gen. Riley cannot recover, and that the dissentary was very severe through the whole month of August."

APPRAISAL IN WAYNE COUNTY.—We learn by a letter received from a gentleman living in Monticello, that a serious affray occurred about 7 1/2 miles from that place, on the evening of the 1st inst., in which Mr. Wm. Bates received wounds which caused his death three days after their infliction. It appears that Bates, having a writ to take the person of a man named James Lockhart, proceeded for that purpose, together with several other persons, to the house of Lockhart, who met them as they entered and stabbed Bates so severely as to cause his death. After considerable difficulty Lockhart was secured, and is now confined in the jail at Monticello.—Danville Tribune.

FURTHER NEWS BY THE NIAGARA.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19. The cholera is decreasing in all parts of Europe. The total deaths in England since June 7, are 13,000. Rome.—The Pope's Manifesto was received with feelings of disappointment and resentment in all quarters, which feeling was especially participated in by the French soldiers, several of whom have been put under arrest for tearing down the Manifesto. The French Military disapproving of Papal Governmental orders, are waiting orders from France. The cardinals do not walk the streets fearing the fury of the populace. The victims marked out by the inquisitorial decree walk about freely. The Pope relies upon Austria and Spain and has been promised funds from Russia, and imagines that public opinion will finally favor him. From a debate on Roman affairs in the French Assembly it was inferred that on the troops leaving Rome a fresh revolution would break out.

St. Louis, Oct. 19. POLITICAL MEETINGS IN ST. LOUIS.—Messrs. AND ANTI-BENTON.—Senator Benton addressed an immense mass meeting last evening upon the subject of instruction of the Legislature. He refused to answer questions, respectfully put, in relation to his future action in Congress upon the subject of slavery. At another mass meeting resolutions were passed condemnatory of Benton's course. Much disorder was created and the police was called out to quiet the disturbance.

Sir JOHN FRANKLIN'S VESSEL.—A vessel arrived at New London, Conn., from Davis straits. The Captain speaks of hearing of Sir John Franklin's ships in Prince Regent's Inlet, where the Indians said the ships had remained for four seasons and were still surrounded by ice. The Indians said the crews were all alive and well. This confirms the English accounts of the Niagara.

THE ENGLISH WAR EXPENDITURE.—The letter of Mr. Samuel Gurney, the greatest money dealer in the world, to the House of Commons at Paris, is really an important state document. It has been in the extensive business of almost national finance for fifty years. It is believed that he turns over nearly fifteen millions sterling of money every year. On "Change his word is law. To ministers his words are deeds. To the nation his word is an oracle. He states that in the millions of the inhabitants of Europe, in the prime and strength of their lives, have been abstracted from useful and productive labor, and are made consumers only of the good gifts of God and of national wealth. The maintenance of the armies and navies of Europe he calculates at $200,000,000 sterling per annum. Certainly, the subject for all its collateral bearings, it cannot well be much less. He adds that, unless different policy is adopted, many of the European nations must become bankrupt in a very few years.

The Cleveland Plaindealer has a letter, dated "Ste Marie river," September 25th, announcing the arrival of Sir John Richardson, from the fruitless search after the lost Polar expedition of Sir John Franklin, of whose dreadful fate among the ice of the Arctic ocean there is left little room to doubt. Sir John Richardson, having failed to find the remotest clue to the Franklin expedition, is now on his way back to England. He left there in April, 1848, and from the South Sea Marie has made the voyage in canoes and boats and overland, a distance of three thousand and five hundred miles and back, by way of Lake of the Woods, Mackenzie's river, &c. After reaching the Arctic ocean, they traveled for hundred miles along the coast. He speaks confidently of the existence of a northern passage; practicability, he says, is another question; the summer being only from 30 to 60 days long. He goes by way of Toronto and Montreal to Boston.—Low Journal.

The Whig vote in the city and county of Philadelphia is, by 3,955, than what it was at the Presidential election last fall, while the Low vote falls off but 2,415; and yet our opponents are boasting of their triumph, in the hope that the people will not discover that their aggregate vote is less by upwards of two thousand than it was when Gen. Taylor carried the city and county of Philadelphia by more than five thousand.—Republ.

"Lay but the finger of power upon our press; the first instinct of the Union will strike a blow; that will resound throughout the nation, it will bring every democrat to our side. Every liberal man in the United States will rush to the rescue of the liberty of the press. The great cause will protect its fearless champions. Its martyrs will not be without honor even in their own country; and money will flow in streams upon our cause, and a wreath of glory will entwine our humble brow. Touch us, then, if they dare."—Union.

The Union seems to have been so well satisfied with the above specimen of "the indignant, in the style of Junius," that it repeats it, in order that its readers may have the full benefit of this choice bit of locustian rhetoric. But weary-sorry to say that the extract is not original, but a copy, whatever it may be in the letter. The writer caught all his fire from the sentiments of Young Meddle, in the following scene between that gentleman and Young Courtly, in the comedy of London Assurance. As we quote from memory, any slight variations from the original text will be pardoned.

Young C. Oh, are you here still, Mr. What's-your-name?

Med. Meddle, sir. Meddle, in the list of attorneys; and editor of the sole organ of the county opposition.

Young C. Well, Meddle, or Puddle, or whoever you are, you are a bore.

Med. (Aside.) How excessively odd! Mrs. Pert said I was a pig. Now, I'm a boar! I wonder what they'll make of me next?

Young C. Mr. Thingamy, will you take a word of advice?

Med. Feel honored.

Young C. Get out.

Med. (To the extract.)—I don't understand, Young C. Delighted to quicken your apprehension. You are an ass, Puddle.

Med. Ha! ha! another quadruple! Yes, beautiful. (Aside.) I wish he'd call me something libellous; but that would be too much to expect. (Aloud.) Any thing else?

Young C. You are a sensible, pettifoggish, covey-drooping, scandal-mongering scoundrel.

Med. Good! Ha! ha!

Young C. What do you mean by laughing at me?

Med. Ha! ha! ha! Excellent! delicious!

will flow in streams into our purse," says the Union. "Costs, &c., rose up like sky-rockets." says Lawyer Meddle. The patient reader can carry out the parallel still farther. Really, the plagiarism, as it respects the language, sentiments, and individual characteristics of the comedy, is too gross and palpable even for a locustian journalist.—Republ.

A meeting of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, was held on the 12th inst., at which resolutions were passed strongly in favor of Whitney's great Pacific Railroad project. We intend to publish the resolution, but are unable to find room for them this morning.—Low. Cour.

Pen.—Keep pushing; if you run against a snow-bank or a rail-fence, don't go back, but push forward, or to one side, and go on. It is of no use to cry and lament; it will not help the matter in the least. Tears never helped a steam or a rail-fence. Push ever, and keep pushing, and your fortune is half made, and your immortality is secured.
